Stroke Order (1 → 4)

Guided practice — write the Kanji repeatedly:

A 10x10 grid of Chinese characters, specifically the character '区' (District), arranged in ten rows and ten columns. The characters are rendered in different shades of gray, creating a visual effect where they appear darker in the first few columns and lighter in the last few columns. The grid is set against a white background.

Extra practice – practice writing the Kanji:
